

Brad Clawson was born and raised in West Texas. He grew up playing drums in the school marching band and several punk/rock bands. In 2005, he moved to Tennessee and attended Middle Tennessee State University, where he studied Parks and Recreation Management. During his education, he learned to play the guitar and formed several bands with his roommates. While attending graduate school several years later, Clawson slowly developed an understanding and a love for songwriting. Turning his focus toward songwriting, he hit the ground running and never looked back. Brad has seen great success from singles such as “Happy Does” by Kenny Chesney and #1 single “Up Down” by Morgan Wallen featuring Florida Georgia Line. He co-produced on Chris Janson’s upcoming project, All In, and has upcoming cuts with Jake Owen, Mitchell Tenpenny, Jon Langston, etc.

Matt Jenkins is the songwriter publisher’s dream of. Perfectly riding the line between cool and commercial, Jenkins’ songs always leave the listener wanting more. A 2017 CMA Triple Play Award Winner, he has earned 6 #1 singles, including “Do I Make You Wanna” by Billy Currington, “Song For Another Time” by Old Dominion, and “Setting The World on Fire” by Kenny Chesney ft. P!nk, and ACM Song Of The Year nominated “Buy Dirt” by Jordan Davis and Luke Bryan. He also wrote Florida Georgia Line’s “Confession”, Dustin Lynch’s “Where It’s At” and Keith Urban’s hit single “Cop Car.” Not only do his songs top charts but they also set the mood for TV’s biggest shows including his song “Fade Into You” placed in ABC’s “Nashville.” Jenkins has recently had cuts with Jordan Davis, Old Dominion, Time McGraw, Sam Hunt, Blake Shelton, Cole Swindell, Brett Young, and Eli Young Band.

West Texas Native, Billy Dawson is a multi-talented singer/songwriter/producer. Dawson recently signed a publishing deal with Rodney Clawson, Boom Music Group, and Warner Chappell Music in the spring of 2022. Dawson is currently writing and producing a new military-based record in which Veterans served as co-writers along with some other talented Nashville songwriters. With the support of American Metal Customs, 100% of the proceeds will benefit Sierra Delta whose mission is to empower Veterans with access to approved dog training that provides purpose and community through the love of service dogs. The project is being mixed by Chris Lord Alge, Bob Clearmountain, F. Reid Shippen, Skidd Mills, Bob Ludwig, Ted Jensen, Brad Blackwood, and other legendary mixing and mastering engineers. Dawson also wrote, recorded & produced music for the newly released Bollywood movie, “Rocketry” with R. Madhavan which was the first American country song to ever be featured in a Bollywood movie.
