

RETRIEVING
INDEPENDENCE

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SUPPORT & PAW-TNERSHIP

Our Mission

At Retrieving Independence, our mission is to increase independence and restore dignity through the training and placement of working dogs.

Through the transformative power of the human-animal bond, we provide rehabilitation for inmate trainers, a sense of community for our dedicated volunteers, and greater independence for individuals living with disabilities.

We envision lives and communities transformed through the love, hope, and dignity fostered by the human-animal bond.

Retrieving in the Round

SPONSOR FAQ

How does Retrieving in the Round support the mission of Retrieving Independence?

The funds raised during this event go directly toward training and placing service dogs with individuals in need. It helps us cover costs like veterinary care, training, transportation, and supplies, ensuring that our dogs are ready to change lives and restore independence.

Why should I sponsor this event?

Sponsoring Retrieving in the Round offers the opportunity to:

- Showcase your business to a dedicated audience that values community impact.
- Align your brand with a reputable nonprofit making a measurable difference.
- Receive prominent recognition in event materials, social media, and onsite displays.
- Enjoy the event yourself and network with other community leaders and philanthropists.

How many people typically attend the event?

Our past events have welcomed over 100 guests, including community members, local businesses, and supporters who share a passion for our mission. This ensures significant visibility for your sponsorship.

How is my sponsorship promoted?

We highlight our sponsors through:

- Social media shoutouts and event promotion posts.
- Recognition in event programs, flyers, and digital materials.
- Onsite displays, including banners and screens.
- Verbal acknowledgment during the event.
